Historical Showcase Family Day at Nashville City Cemetery

March 14-15 2024 1001 4th Ave S, Nashville 11:00 AM to 4:00 PM

Join us for a day of historical education and activities at the Nashville City Cemetery! Travel through the decades and experience history through hands on, activity-based learning. Although centuries have passed, our rich history sits right here in the heart of Nashville!

Children and parents alike can participate in each station as you jump in the time machine and experience the 1800's and more!

- Earn money by working on the farm!
- Write a telegraph to another 19th century child!
- Take a ride around the cemetery on our state-of-the-art steam locomotive!
- Attend a viewing of the all-new monochrome films!
- Become a factory worker and learn the process of producing iron products!
- Record your own time capsule radio broadcast!

11:15 Buster Keaton - Sherlock Jr. (1924) 12:10 Charlie Chaplin - City Lights (1931) 2:30 Harold Lloyd - Safety Last (1923)
